

What ever happened to free enterprize systym? Sounds like the broadcasters think they should have a monopoly. The greatest point of all this: I have a choice. if the broadcasters are losing customers then they should change and compete in the market place. This is how it should work.